The University of California "coed" basketball team did not play a practice game with Miss West's school yesterday as was expected. The management of the "blue and gold" coeds thought it best to give the time to secret practice. The team will appear against Stanford in new uniforms—white sweaters and blue bloomers.

Reception to Rev. J. D. Foster.

Last evening a large number of the friends and the congregation of the Park Congregational Church, at Lorin, assembled at the church to tender a reception to the Rev. J. D. Foster—a family, prior to his departure for his new ministry in Sonoma county.

The church was handsomely decorated with flowers and evergreens.

Addresses were made by different persons wishing the pastor and his family God speed in his new work and location, and expressing regret that he was to leave them.

The evening was spent in singing, conversation, and a general good time.

The Ladies' Aid Society had provided refreshments, consisting of ice-cream and cake, which were enjoyed by all present.

The Rev. J. D. Foster has been Pastor of the Park Congregational Church for the past five years, and during that time he has gradually but successfully brought it up to its present high standing, and at the same time he has endeavored himself to the people of Lorin for the permanent stand that he has taken in behalf of the moral standing of that section of the town.

His family will be greatly missed by the young people of the town who have enjoyed their acquaintance, both in a social and a spiritual way for all these years.

Died.

In Berkeley, April 2, 1896, John M. Sequist, a native of Sweden, aged 23 years, 11 months.

Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend the funeral tomorrow (Friday), at 2:30 p. m., from the undertaking parlors of Durgin & Bleakly, 2115 Center street, Berkeley station, Intermountain View Cemetery.

Tinware made and repaired at Schmitt & Zehner.

HE WORRIED HER

While She Tried to Have Him Copy a Receipt.

Copy a Receipt.

Say John, will you copy this down while I read it? I think it is the same Mrs. Judd uses for crab soup.

"All right. Go ahead."

"Take the meat of a small lobster chopped fine."

John—"A live or dead lobster?"

She—"Cooked, of course. You couldn't chop a live lobster."

"Oh. Go on."

"Three crackers rolled fine."

John—"What kind of crackers, sweet crackers, soda crackers, fire crackers or—"

"You know what I mean. Season with salt, pepper, a speck of cayenne."

John—"A little speck or a big speck."

"Why, just a little pinch. Anybody knows that."

"All right" (but he does not believe it just the same).

"And butter the size of an egg."

"What kind of an egg? A pigeon's egg or a hen's egg or the egg of the Farralone bird?"

"Oh, go along. As if anybody didn't know the size of an egg. Mix all in the same pan."

"What same pan. Nothing has been said about any pan."

"You could mix all those things in half-a-dozen pans, could you?"

John—"That's correct."

"Of course it is. You seem to be stupid tonight. Add gradually a pinch of boiling milk stirring all the while."

John—"Stirring the pan or the ingredients?"

"That's what it says here by any fool would know it meant the roundments."

"Boil up once and serve."

John—"Who's going to eat it. You did not read about anybody's being present, but the maker?"

"There that will do. I'll copy it myself next time and won't have to answer foolish questions."

IS IN MORE TROUBLE

Mrs. Ainsworth's Husband is Wrathful

AND WILL SUE MRS. CROWLEY FOR SLANDER.

Says Mrs. Crowley's Insane Jealousy is the Cause of All Her Present Troubles.

Ainsworth Will Fight.

Mrs. Almá Crowley, having filed her complaint for a divorce, is now waiting for her husband to make a move. Her future actions in the case will depend entirely upon the course pursued by Dr. Crowley. He is given ten days under the law to answer the charges of infidelity and cruelty.

A. G. Ainsworth, husband of the co-respondent, in the case, employed Attorneys Calvin and Graber to represent his wife at the trial. She will put in a separate denial of the charge made against her. W. W. Foote announces that he does not represent Mrs. Ainsworth in the case, but that he will appear for Dr. Crowley.

R. R. Turner, the capitalist, is the father of Mrs. Ainsworth. He is greatly incensed over the charge made against his daughter. Mr. Turner visited Dr. Crowley, and secured a statement from him. The Doctor said that Mrs. Crowley was insanely jealous, and that she must be crazy in making such a charge against Mrs. Ainsworth.

Mr. Turner then hunted up his son-in-law and requested him to have Mrs. Crowley arrested on a charge of insanity. Ainsworth declined to take such action, on the ground that he could not make the charge stick, and would get himself into trouble.

"Mrs. Crowley calls me a poor railroad clerk," said Ainsworth. "The fact is, I am not poor. I sold for $20,000 a ranch which was given to my wife by her father. I own several houses in Oakland which bring me in rent. I also own a ranch in Napa county worth $7000. I guess I can afford a carriage for my wife, and piano too. No, I will not have Mrs. Crowley arrested for insanity. I propose to fight this matter out in the divorce court. She has made the charge, and now we propose to disprove it."

Ready for the Contests.

Much interest centers in the regatta which will be given by the University Boating Association on Session's basin next Saturday. A number of men have been trying for the various class crews, and Captain Cole thinks the men who row Saturday will acquit themselves creditably.

The programme for the afternoon is as follows: Four-oar race, '98 vs. '99; four-oar race, '96 vs. '97; single-scul races; four-oar finals; single-scul races by members of class crews.

The crews are: '96, Peck, Wittenmeyer, Wilson and Allen; '97, English, McDonald, Brackenbury and Cole; '98, Trew, Hopper, Pendergrast and Grimwood; '99, Gibbons, Castlehugh, Jackson and Taylor.

The Oakland.

"The Golden Plough" is a somewhat misleading title to the really excellent comedy drama running at the Oakland this week. The title is taken from an English inn about which the plot of the play centers. It is a melo-dramatic story of English life, a "deserted wife," complications, promoted by love and avarice. The cast is a strong one and the stage setting very complete.

This theatre should be crowded every evening by the people of Oakland and Berkeley. Next Saturday at the children's Matinee a fine safety will be given away. Every child has a chance. Matinee prices 10 and 20 cents. Secure your seats at Baer's drug store, Shattuck avenue and Center street.

Somewhat Erratic.

"John, where is that paper that's paper that's got something in that says there is something better for sores than transferring the skin?"

"Here's half a dozen papers. Which one do you want?"

"Oh, this is the one, and that is not what I wanted, at all. It is about lobster soup. Won't you copy it for me?"

Protecting Wages.

The various labor organizations of Berkeley met Monday evening at Pythian Hall to consider the matter of forming a Town Protective Association, including all the trade unions and labor societies in the town. President Langlais of Berkeley Union, No. 23, Brotherhood of Carpenters, presided. He had invited C. McCartney of the Building Trades Council of San Francisco to address the meeting.

Mr. McCartney explained the necessity of complete organization throughout the county as had been done in San Francisco, in order to better protect the mutual interests of the laboring crafts.

President Langlais called attention to the fact that there are 2,000 carpenters in Oakland and only 300 belong to the union. The wages in Oakland are $2.50 a day. In Berkeley the carpenters get $3 a day. The meeting was largely attended, but no organization will be attempted until another meeting.

Good Argument.

A correspondent of the Woodland Mail writes as follows from Oakland:

"Oakland and Berkeley are reaping annually many thousands of dollars of your hard-earned money, as many of Yolo's families having moved here for educational advantages. Some of these will return to Yolo, others will remain. But you do not see that each of these families will spend from $5,000 to $10,000 during the years they spend here."

The above is one of the best arguments for bonds that we have yet come across, and should be carefully considered by those who are opposed to bonds, and made the most of by those who favor the bonds. This is simply pure evidence in favor of having good schools and good facilities.

GOOD WOMAN GONE.

The Wife of Conductor Moss Morris Passed Away.

Death of Mrs. Morris.

Mrs. Emma Bolcer Morris, wife of conductor Moses Morris, died at the residence of her husband on Cedar street on Tuesday evening last.

"The deceased has been an invalid for several years and during all that time she has been a great sufferer. Her husband has been constantly by her side when off duty, and did much to ease her sufferings. For the past month it was known that her end was not far off and when death did come it was a merciful relief."

The deceased was quite prominent in fraternal circles being a member of Rebekah Degree, I. O. O. F.; Appomattox Relief Corps; Star of Truth Lodge O. S. B. and Calanthe Temple, Rathbone Sisters.

She was 44 years of age at the time of her death. The funeral will take tomorrow from Odd Fellows hall at 2 o'clock under the auspices of the different organizations to which she belonged.

The GAZETTE, in common with the many friends of the bereaved husband tender him its deepest sympathy in this hour of grief and hopes that he will console himself that he has been a kind and tender husband who has anticipated every want of his invalid wife during all of her sufferings.

Stanford has chosen the affirmative side in the debate with California which will be held in San Francisco April 25th, and will therefore advocate the election of United States Senators by direct vote of the people. MISS SQUIRES INCREASES HER LEAD MATERIALLY.

While Miss Ellerhorst of Lorin Jumps From Three Votes to 1,503.

It Keeps Us Busy.

There is no abatement in the teachers contest which is going on in the GAZETTE, votes for teachers come in every day by the thousand, for the teachers, and new subscribers are coming in by the dozens each day. We have been compelled to put on no less than three new carriers in order to supply our increased circulation that has come in since this contest began, which now makes our carrier force number nine besides the route agent. We have got the town nearly covered and now there will be no delay in subscribers receiving their papers.

The boys and girls are working nobly and they are canvassing the town thoroughly for subscribers and are getting them at every turn. The GAZETTE circulation has gone away above the 1000 mark and is increasing. It gives the news, consequently the boys and girls who are canvassing for new subscribers have no difficulty in getting them when they once show the paper, and we have no difficulty in keeping the subscribers after they have once read the GAZETTE.

Miss Squires made another move to the head of the procession today, which shows that she has got good friends working for her. We understand that there are three or four boys and girls who are holding back their votes in order to put her at the head of the list on Monday evening, if possible.

The following letter was received today from a little girl who is working for her:

EDITOR GAZETTE: Please find enclosed 20 coupons for Miss Squires. I think that the East Berkeley boys had ought to be ashamed of themselves to let the West End boys beat them so badly. I know that if they will all get in and work we can send Miss Squires to the top of the list, and then hurrah for the two weeks' outing for our beloved teacher.

ANNIE BOYD.

Berkeley, April 1, 1896.

In the boys and girls prize contest Edward Niehaus still heads the list. He is a hard worker, and is constantly on the go. Stuart Wilson made a ten stroke today, and is up among the leaders. Miss Annie Lauterbach is steadily gaining, and before she gets through she will make some of the boys open their eyes. Archie Taber dropped out for a day or two, but he showed up smiling again today, with a handful of subscriptions. He is a worker when he gets down to business, and from now on he will climb right up the ladder. Next week the prizes will be on exhibition at East Berkeley for a few days; then for a few days at North Berkeley; then at West Berkeley; next at Lorin; then at Golden Gate; so that all may see just what they are striving for.

The vote today stands as follows:

AN OLD PIONEER

Of Berkeley is Called to Her Long Rest.

Passed Away.

Yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock the spirit of Mrs. Abby L. Hardwick, wife of Thomas Hardwick of North Berkeley, took its upward flight and there was an end to all earthly pains and trials.

One by one the pioneers of Berkeley are passing away. In 1860 Mr. Thomas Hardwick purchased land in West Berkeley on the San Pablo avenue road which is now known as the Hardwick tract. It extends from San Pablo west and one of the stopping stations of the West Berkeley railroad is located upon it. For many years the family lived upon it until the younger members grew up and their paths became diverged. Mr. Hardwick was a man of about 92 years of age; is hale and hearty and often does a day's work upon the old place, walking to it from Dwight way and back.

Mrs. Hardwick has always been an active and cheerful lady and retained her mental faculties to the day of her death.

She was a member of the North Berkeley Congregational Church. Her loving tenderness always attracted the young, who were devotedly attached to her. Older people, and she had quite a large circle of acquaintances, loved and respected her for her many virtues.

At her decease she was 80 years and 10 months of age. Behind are left three daughters and one son: Mrs. H. B. Dingley; Mrs. M. S. Carnall; Miss Abbie Hardwick and Captain Edward Hardwick. Mrs. Dingley resides in Seattle, and is now on her way here.

With a mind spiritually fully inclined she often repeated during her sickness the well-known hymn commencing:

"When shall I see Jesus
And reign with Him above?"

They were very comforting to her mind, and their impression was deep upon it.

Her death occurred at the residence of Mrs. Carnall at 2159 Vine street. The funeral will take place at the Congregational Church, Rev. Mr. Robbins presiding. Interment in Mount View Cemetery, where the remains will be placed temporarily in the vault.

Will give you money.

Fire in Oakland.

Oakland, April 2.—A fire early this morning on the west side of Broadway, between Tenth and Eleventh, did damage to the extent of $20,000. It started in G. Casimere's paint store, and spread to the Kohler & Chase music house on the north, and to T. Roy H. Briggs' millinery store on the south. The damage by water and smoke was $3000. J. T. Moran, clothing store, was damaged by smoke $2000. Kohler & Chase lost 16 pianos and much sheet music. Casimere's entire stock was lost. It was fully insured. The building is owned by C. Ainsworth. It was damaged $1000, and was fully insured.

Eight Were Killed.

New York, April 2.—A special to the "Herald" from Valparaiso says: The monitor Huascar, fresh from the new dry dock in Talcahuano, has arrived here. Scarcely had she cast anchor when a dreadful disaster occurred on board. Without warning the main steam pipe burst, killing eight of the crew and injuring nine others. None of the details can be obtained as no one is permitted to go on board.

Tried to Raze the Building.

Jackson, Miss., April 2.—At 10 o'clock last night Secretary of State Power found several men digging at the wall of the State House. They ran away. Had the work gone on a little longer the wall would have fallen. Strenuous efforts were made at the recent session of the Legislature to provide a new building, but nothing was done. It is thought some miscreants took this means of securing immediate action.

Caught At Port Costa.

George Richards and Robert Donnelly, the two boys who ran away from home on Tuesday last, and announced their intention of becoming highway men, an account of which appeared in last night's GAZETTE, have been captured at Port Costa and are now behind the prison bars awaiting the arrival of an officer to bring them home. Both the youngsters had a huge revolver upon their persons when captured.

Marshal Lloyd will dispatch Deputy Marshal Esmond to Port Costa this evening after the runaway boys, and will bring the boys home.

Eight Were Killed.

New York, April 2.—A special to the "Herald" from Valparaiso says: The monitor Huascar, fresh from the new dry dock in Talcahuano, has arrived here. Scarcely had she cast anchor when a dreadful disaster occurred on board. Without warning the main steam pipe burst, killing eight of the crew and injuring nine others. None of the details can be obtained as no one is permitted to go on board.

Tried to Raze the Building.

Jackson, Miss., April 2.—At 10 o'clock last night Secretary of State Power found several men digging at the wall of the State House. They ran away. Had the work gone on a little longer the wall would have fallen. Strenuous efforts were made at the recent session of the Legislature to provide a new building, but nothing was done. It is thought some miscreants took this means of securing immediate action.

Caught At Port Costa.

George Richards and Robert Donnelly, the two boys who ran away from home on Tuesday last, and announced their intention of becoming highway men, an account of which appeared in last night's GAZETTE, have been captured at Port Costa and are now behind the prison bars awaiting the arrival of an officer to bring them home. Both the youngsters had a huge revolver upon their persons when captured.

Marshal Lloyd will dispatch Deputy Marshal Esmond to Port Costa this evening after the runaway boys, and will bring the boys home.

TOWN OFFICIAL PAPER.

THE GAZETTE WILL BE PLEASANT TO RECEIVE PERSONAL, OR SOCIETY NOTES, NEWS OF ENGAGEMENTS, WEDDINGS, PARTIES, ETC. CONTRIBUTORS SHOULD SIGN THEIR CORRESPONDENCE, AND ADDRESS, AND FOR PUBLICATION, BUT AS EVIDENCE OF GOOD FAITH. ADDRESS ALL COMMUNICATIONS TO THE EDITOR.

510 Reward.
The above reward will be paid upon the arrest and conviction of any person stealing the Gazette from the doors or yards of subscribers.

DISPENSABLE METHODS.
We were informed this morning that the manipulations of the Civic Federation officers had tried last evening to take advantage of the excitement of the Gazette, in order to get their lying circulars distributed by folding them into the Gazette.

We are positive that none of the circulars got into the papers distributed in West Berkeley, and that in the East Berkeley North Berkeley-South Berkeley and Loma routes, none of the circulars were in the papers when they left our office.

We shall investigate this matter thoroughly and find out just how any of these circulars got into the Gazette. If any did so, and find whenever it is responsible for the act will be made to suffer if there is any law that can reach them.

The Gazette does not play double on any question, but comes out open and above board on any and all questions. In the matter of bonds the Gazette has, from the start, been an avowed advocate of them, and shall always continue to be so.

We have been careful to exclude from our columns anything that might tend to do any injury to bonds, hence we would not be a party to allowing any of the opposition circulars to be folded in with the Gazette under any circumstances. If any of these hybrid creatures has been folded in the Gazette, it is our duty to expose them.

It was wholly without our knowledge, and as we have before stated, we shall investigate the matter thoroughly and cause considerable trouble for those who were instrumental in placing them there. When the difficult carriers of the Gazette received their papers last evening they had no circulars folded in them, nor were there any circulars in the hands of any person connected with this office.

The circulars, if they were placed in the Gazette, were probably put there for the purpose of hurting the paper with its subscribers, and with intent to make them believe that while the Gazette was editorially supporting bonds, it was actually opposing them.

It is our duty to expose such a dishonest and unscrupulous attempt to deceive the public, and we shall continue to do so until the truth is made manifest.

Only one day intervenes between now and Saturday, and on that day the citizens of Berkeley will be called upon to vote for or against bonds in the spring of $60,000 for school purposes.

We hope and truly believe that the proposition in favor of bonds will be carried, but we cannot refrain from asking those who are talking of voting against bonds to reconsider their intentions. Berkeley is rapidly forging ahead, and it is even now ahead of its school accommodations.

By July next, when the next term commences, there will be hundreds of scholars to provide for besides those we have with us already, and we must be prepared to take care of them.

The small increase in the taxes you will have to pay you will never notice for it runs for a period of 10 years and in that time the parents of the new comers that we now desire to provide for will be assisting you in paying off those bonds. If you desire Berkeley to go ahead and your property to be created in value you will vote in favor of bonds. If you desire it to be just a country village and your property to be worth comparatively nothing, you will vote against bonds.

Don't let any false ideas stand in the way of voting in favor of bonds.

No direct tax pay can place our schools where they should be. The advocates of a direct tax do not achieve it themselves, but are only using it as a weapon against bonds. They would not vote for a direct tax if the opportunity were offered them. He true to your service, your children and your neighborhood for bonds on Saturday next.

CRIMINAL PRISONAGE.
John N. Lee, a Spanish lady, who lived at an address in San Francisco last evening on "Valhalla." He preceded his remarks by saying that he believed that women should have the right of suffrage, so that they could be equal with men. If women had the right to vote, they would not be barred out from employment as they are now. He said that if women had the right of suffrage, there would be less marriages of the kind that are being consummated at the present time.

A SPLENDID OPPORTUNITY.
In San Rafael, in the State of California, a splendid opportunity is offered for a person to invest in a large tract of land, and to develop it into a great estate. The land is situated in a beautiful spot, and is well watered. The owner is willing to sell at a low price, and is ready to make a large profit. The opportunity is rare, and is not to be missed. IMPORTANT NOTICE.
There will be a general polling place for the bond election on Saturday next, and that will be at the K. K. Kluge school house, on Center street, between Shattuck and Oxford streets, West Berkeley. This is a unanimous action in time to vote. All persons who voted at the last election will be entitled to vote at the election on Saturday.

The California Press Association will meet in Sacramento on April 14th. The association will consist of all the newspaper editors of the State, and will be held at the Hotel California. LECTURE ON FEET
Hearty, very delicate things, and you cannot be too careful how you handle them. It is a common expression when a man is in trouble over anything to hear it said "the shoe fits his foot into it." The best thing to put your foot into if you don't want trouble is a pair of Young's Shoes. 1000 1/2
